Our years at N.P.H.S. have helped us develop in many ways. We have become keenly aware of the world around us. We each react to situations individually and have acquired the inner strength with which to defend our values.

People must grow into entities if they are to achieve happiness. Only when one's unique talents have been culminated can he be considered completely alive. In our school activities, each of us has been trying to discover his role as a person. We shall continue to search for our place in society.

So what else is new?

This stuff tastes pretty weird!

If I could only concentrate . . .

Coffee, tea or me?

An end to the unfinished symphony!

History

After a summer of mounting anticipation, the Class of '68 entered the high school as enthusiastic Freshmen. Making plans for the coming year, we elected Randy Blain for our President, Nancy Reis, Vice-President, Iris Densky, Secretary, and Virginia Rojas, Treasurer. Under their direction, and with the help of our class advisor, Miss Rose Marie Bellino, we held our first dance, in March, appropriately titled, "Shamrock Shindig."

We returned the following year as bold Sophomores, now well at ease and raring to go in our second year at N.P.H.S. Bearing this in mind, we chose Lou Carlucci, President, Judy Nazemetz, Vice President, and Iris and Gini as Secretary and Treasurer, respectively.

Carrying our ambition into the planning of the traditional sock hop, we named the dance "Like a Rolling toe." With two successful dances to our credit, we proudly ordered our class rings.

Upon their arrival we officially became a part of N.P.H.S., as vivacious Juniors. With a big year ahead, we put Lou, Judy and Iris back in office and elected Mary Wilson to the office of Treasurer.

Keeping in the swing of things, we named our Junior Class Dance "Kaos." On a more refined basis we held the Junior Prom, "Through the Looking Glass" under the able direction of Judy Nazemetz and Lou Carlucci. What ladies and gentlemen we were!!!

Pleased with the results of our Junior year, we re-elected Lou, Iris and Mary. Fully aware of our Senior responsibilities, we held the first dance, "What For."

A short time later, "Portrait of Jennie" our Senior Play was a great success.

Entering the year 1968, we felt graduation drawing near as we strove to make our last activities memorable ones.

Full of spring fever and creativity, we made bows and donned spring clothes for Bow Day. Then we displayed our abundant knowledge and taught classes on Senior Day.

Feeling the end drawing very near, we prepared for our last activity before graduation, the Senior Banque.

Forever instilled in our minds and our hearts are the triumphs and tribulations of our high school years, the friends we have made, and the pride of being a part of North Plainfield High School.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year the faculty honors 5% of the junior class and 10% of the senior class with membership in the National Honor Society. Those who best exemplify the ideals of characteristics, scholarship, leadership and service receive this honor.

During the school year, the National Honor Society sponsors a book fair and maintains a book store for the entire school. Society members tutor fellow students, junior members usher at baccalauriate and graduation and induct new members the following year.

The society's advisor is Mr. Francis Kianese. The officers for the 1967-68 school year were:

TUNLAW

The newspaper of any community is vital to that society's communication, and the high school is no exception. This year, TUNLAW has strived to improve itself even more than in past years and has increased its circulation by 100 copies.

Published nine times from September to June, it has consistently reported the latest news of school and community. The features page has highlighted many interesting and not-so-well-known activities of students, inside and outside of school. For the past two years, students have eagerly looked forward to the subtle yet witty commentary of Harry Lewis' cartoons. The sports page has presented not only the rundowns of the most recent games, but interviews of coaches and athletes, and columns by athletes. The junior high page, completely written and edited by seventh and eighth graders, has reported news of the junior high with sidelights on curriculum and faculty.

The year started in June of 1967 when the advertising staff began to beat the sidewalks and the editors began to formulate the September issue, published on the second day of school. Progressing through a special eight page Thanksgiving issue highlighting the senior football team members, the Christmas issue, and an April Fool's paper in which the whole first page was made up of false news, the year ended with a special June senior issue reviewing the accomplishments of the year.

Students working on the editorial staff were Karen McCleary, editor-in-chief; Clayne Marsh, news; Carol Martinez, features; Russ Pollack and Dave Brown, sports; Ellen Quackenbush, advertising; Mary Jamin, circulation; Grace Richie, publicity; Connie Sholz, business; Nancy Reis, junior high page; Mike Dixon and Larry Neighbour, junior high editors.
